

Bridgett Meyers / HMC Health & Rehabilitation Center

Hardin Medical Center proudly announces Bridgett Meyers is the Employee of the Quarter. Bridgett is a licensed practical nurse in our nursing home, HMC Health & Rehabilitation Center. She joined the team in November 2015.

Bridgett said she loves the sense of family and the way everyone works together for the same purpose at HMC Health & Rehabilitation Center. Bridgett's coworkers described her as, "the rock," "the best," amazing, and always willing to do anything to help anyone. Clearly, Bridgett has made a huge impact on her coworkers and goes above and beyond to make a difference in the lives of others.

Staffing Coordinator Allison Overton said, "Bridgett has been a team player from the start. She is quick to pick up the ball and run with it. Whenever asked to do a task, she does it without hesitation. She is a fine example of a leader on her rotation; one that makes us proud that she has chosen to work at our facility."

HMC Health & Rehabilitation Center Administrator Jeanne Franks added, "We appreciate Bridgett's flexibility and willingness to do whatever it takes for our residents. She is always there to help in a pinch or do extra tasks when needed. She is consistently thoughtful and compassionate in the care that she provides to our residents, family members, and other staff members. I often receive compliments from staff, residents and families that Bridgett is a great nurse and handles any situation that arises with careful consideration and prompt actions."

Hardin Medical Center appreciates the work ethic of employees like Bridgett. Congratulations on an honor well-deserved.

Many members of the HMC Health & Rehabilitation Center team were on hand to congratulate Bridgett Meyers on her Employee of the Quarter honor including Administrator Jeanne Franks and HMC CEO Nick Lewis.
